

IN THE UNITED STATES DISTRICT COURT
FOR THE NORTHERN DISTRICT OF OHIO
WESTERN DIVISION

United States of America,

Case No. 3:11 CR 216

Plaintiff,

O R D E R

-vs-

JUDGE JACK ZOUHARY

Mark L. Bull,

Defendant.

This criminal case was referred to United States Magistrate Judge James Knepp, with consent of the parties, to conduct a change of plea hearing. The Magistrate Judge filed his Report and Recommendation (R&R) (Doc. No. 13); no Objection has been filed.

This Court finds that the requirements of Federal Criminal Rule 11 have been satisfied; Defendant was properly afforded his rights under the United States Constitution; Defendant was correctly found to be competent, aware of the charges and consequences of conviction and of the waiver of his rights; and Defendant knowingly, intelligently and voluntarily consented to the Magistrate Judge and entered a guilty plea for which there was an adequate factual basis.

After a de novo review of the record and R&R, the Magistrate's findings are adopted, Defendant's guilty plea is accepted, and a finding of guilty is entered.

IT IS SO ORDERED.
